

iDSB NEWSLETTER

February 2026

Dear school community,

From the iDSB art show to Career Afternoon and the popular spring flea market – there are many highlights in store for you over the next few weeks. In March, the primary school will be transformed into a circus ring for Circus Week!

And for anyone who likes to plan, lend a hand or get creative: our summer party team is still looking for co-organisers.

Warm regards,
Your iDSB team

NOTE: If you would like to receive the newsletter in GERMAN in the future, please send an email to marketing@idsb.eu

Clear the stage for art! Under this year's theme 'göttlich', we cordially invite you to the iDSB art show. The Year 12 art class will present specially designed models and fashion creations that bring the divine to life in fabric, form and movement.

The fashion show will be complemented by an accompanying art exhibition: students from grades 5 to 11 will display their works in the foyer of the secondary school.

Programme

5.30 pm: Art exhibition in the foyer

7 pm: Fashion show in the iDSB auditorium

Parents' Café Special in February: Wellbeing

Gabriella Fitterer and Carmen Stork provided a theoretical insight into the topic of wellbeing in January. Unfortunately, Britta von Kleinsorgen was ill.

We are therefore all the more delighted to have her input in the second part of our wellbeing series.

When? On 26 February 2026 from 8:00 a.m.

Where? Parents' café in the foyer of the secondary school.

We wish you all the best until then and hope you have a wonderful crocus holiday!

Yours, Anna and the Parents' Café team

Final of German reading competition in Brussels

On 6 March 2026, the final of the German-language reading competition will take place in Brussels. Here, the internal school winners from grades 5 and 6 from a total of five schools will compete against each other. The European Schools 1 to 4 will each send one candidate to the Hessian State Representation, as will we with Marius (grade 6a) – accompanied by his class teacher and classmates.

In addition to the organiser, the event is supported by the Representation of the State of Hesse to the European Union, the Austrian Cultural Forum, the Goethe-Institut, the Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany and the Gutenberg bookshop.

The author reading by Birgit Gröger, whose work deals with the current refugee situation, will also be particularly exciting.

In addition, this year's 'Bücheralarm' campaign will feature a podcast for the first time, making the event accessible digitally. We look forward to a varied and inspiring day with impressive contributions from the pupils.

On 17 March 2026, from 5:30 to 7:30 pm, iDSB invites you to Career Afternoon. The aim is to give students in grades 10–12 practical insights into different career fields.

Share your professional experiences, inspire young people in their career orientation and make valuable contacts.

Interested in participating as a speaker? Then please contact Mr Daniel Scuderi: daniel.scuderi@idsb.eu.

We look forward to your participation!

iDSB Spring Flea Market on 21.03.

On Saturday, 21 March 2026, we cordially invite you to the popular iDSB Spring Flea Market, including a clothing exchange, from 9:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Would you like to have a stall?

The information sheets and booking form for a stall are now available on our iDSB website.

Important information and changes

While there are no changes to the table flea market, we would like to remind you that the abbreviations/codes for the boxes or crates in which the goods for the clothing exchange are delivered are assigned by the flea market team upon request by email (flohmarkt@idsb.eu) and sent together with the list of items. When registering for the clothing exchange, please let us know if you would like to donate any unsold items.

NEW this time are modified times for dropping off goods for the clothing exchange: On Wednesday, 18 March, goods for sale can be delivered to the auditorium between 4 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. On Thursday, 19 March, the exchange will open at 7:30 a.m. and goods will be accepted until 1 p.m. This change is intended to make it easier for working fans of the clothing exchange to drop off their goods. The earlier closing time on Thursday will allow more time to lay out the goods so that several piles of clothes do not fall on top of each other when searching.

Become part of the flea market team!

Anyone interested in helping behind the scenes is welcome to contact the flea market organising team by email: flohmarkt2@idsb.eu. The organising team will get back to you as soon as possible.

Library meet-up: exchange, farewell & new colleagues wanted

On 24 February, the library volunteers will meet to spend time together and exchange ideas. At the same time, we will say goodbye to some dear volunteers who are now ending their commitment.

New faces welcome

We would especially like to invite NEW parents! Anyone who would like to support the library, gain some insight or simply drop in for a no-obligation taster session is very welcome. No prior knowledge is necessary – just a desire to participate and an interest in books.

Come by, get to know us and become part of our library team – we look forward to seeing you!

When: 24 February at 8:00 p.m.

Where: Secondary school library

Vacancies at the iDSB

Would you like to join our dedicated team? Take a look at our vacancies at iDSB: application platform.

Note on photo permissions

At iDSB, you can choose from three possible photo permissions:

'I consent to the publication of photos of the student in school publications (e.g. yearbook, social media, etc.) and on the school website.:'

- Yes
- Yes, only for class photos in the iDSB yearbook
- No

You can view the photo permission settings for your child at any time in Phidias in your child's student profile under 'Verschiedenes'.

If you would like to make a change, please send an email to marketing@idsb.eu.

Found items seek new owners

Drinking bottle gone astray? Sports trousers on permanent holiday? Jacket disappeared without a trace? Our lost property boxes are well stocked and look forward to visitors.

Anything that is not collected by the end of the spring half-term holidays will be sent on its way – as a donation to a good cause. So it's worth taking a look!

Great cinema at iDSB – Filmland Sachsen-Anhalt

The Head of the State Chancellery and Minister of Culture of Saxony-Anhalt, Rainer Robra, cordially invites you to two film screenings at the iDSB on 4 March 2026.

The afternoon will begin with the children's film 'Tafiti – Ab durch die Wüste'. Post-production work for this film also took place in Saxony-Anhalt. This will be followed by a screening of the film 'Sehnsucht in Sangerhausen', produced by Magdeburg-based Blue Monticola Film.
